MISSISSIPPI STATE COLLEGE FOR WOMEN

Columbus, Mississippi

Prologue

By you, for you, and because of you this book has been published that you can experience again the warm tenderness felt when someone else's navy blue skirt gently touched yours in passing, your heart might again expand with the pride that swelled up within you when you told someone where you were attending college, and your eyes again fill with tears that sting them as the Seniors sang "To Thee We Bequeath." Sweet experiences they were then, and sweet memories they are today. The staff has captured them for you and bound them between the covers of this, your volume of memories, your MEH LADY.

Dedication

For the high ideals that influence the mind of every M. S. C. W. girl, the serene dignity with which social and academic life intermingle on the campus, the inspiration that carries us all forward, the years of her inexhaustible service that have been ours: for these things we express our appreciation to our own and beloved Dean of Women, Miss Nellie S. Keirn

PRESIDENT

OUR PRESIDENT

Because he is ever willing to lend his experience and knowledge in the most trivial or most complex problem, because he gives us inspiration and courage, because his dignity lifts us to higher levels, because he is the combination of every good and noble thing—this greatness is embodied in the heart of M. S. C. W.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

To the Class of 1940:

May this MEH LADY be one of the ties that binds you closely to Alma Mater in the years to come. May it remind you of friends staunch and true, of days made golden by student activities, of cherished intellectual attainments, of inspiring behavior, of beautiful surroundings, and of interesting people whose paths crossed yours between 1936 and 1940. May the events, places, and personalities that it records inspire each of you to continued growth and development in the manners and morals that you have so beautifully exemplified in your college life. May the spirit of good taste and good will which characterizes this annual and which has been typical of the class of 1940 follow you into your vocations, into your relationships as citizens, and into your personal living. May the coming years find you as frequent visitors here, where a welcome always awaits you amid the familiar scenes so artistically portrayed in this Year Book.

Sincerely,
B. L. PARKINSON,
President.

SENIOR CLASS

We give to you the Senior with all of her newly acquired dignity and knowledge. Thoughts of practice teaching make her heart constantly leap in her throat as she recalls the episode of a last year's student teacher who was tripped by her favorite pupil. With pride and motherly care she leads her group of underclassmen to the show, performing the duty of chaperoning as it should be done. She proudly wears her out-of-uniform clothes during the hour before she leaves for a week-end. Midnight discussions of the years to follow, when she is out in the world, buzz through the halls after the lights are out. In the fall she rejoiced when she realized that this was her last year, but at the close of spring, lumps choke up her throat at the thought of leaving—"To you we bequeath"—"Chain of Magnolias we carry today"—packing, weeping, the leaving of worn and cherished collars to those behind, laughing, more weeping, remembering—How her hand trembles as she receives her diploma from Dr. Parkinson and how hard it is to breathe.

JUNIOR CLASS

Now an upperclassman with all its privileges—lights not out till twelve; a collar with only the smallest of a French knot in each corner. The Junior anxiously surveys the group of Freshmen so that she may get the cutest "little sister" of them all. At each lyceum you see her, with all her poise, ushering the crowd to their respective seats. She decorates the Goose and gym to give the biggest "little sister" party ever held at M. S. C. W. She is feted and entertained at the banquet the Seniors give in her honor. At stunt night she shines forth with all her collegiate air as she sings "Glory, glory to the Seniors" and entertains all with her hilarious antics. She watches the Seniors practice for Chain of Magnolias and wonders how the world will run when they are gone. On class day she fills in the Senior section and regretfully thinks of the year that has passed.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

The so-called forgotten class—So near and yet so far—Still the Sophomore has the feeling of having been here before and the feeling that she is a part of the whole. No longer does she wear solid navy blue, but the white on her collar is like the sun in the depth of winter. An occasional spurt of pent-up energy reveals that she is not quite as worldly wise and serene as she feels that she is. Half of the Sophomore Class lifts its voice in song as it starts out on the long trek from the Goose to "Reno" Hall while the half that lives in Shattuck has ten extra minutes in which to sleep in the mornings, for all they have to do is dash downstairs for breakfast—The Sophomore lends to the Freshman her unlimited store of knowledge concerning campus activities and what to expect from college life. She carefully and reverently ties magnolias in the magnolia chain as she pictures herself proudly carrying it on her graduation day. In a sheer garden party dress she admiringly presents her graduating "big sister" to the reception committee at the tea given by her class—Next year a Junior and no study hour.

FRESHMAN CLASS

With Knees knocking together the Freshman walks on the campus for the first time, wondering what the future holds for her and hoping her roommate will like her as much as she is planning to like her roommate. She invariably is lost and confused in the hustle of registration. Her untrained ears have not yet acquired the knack of differentiating one voice from the drone in the dining hall; therefore she merely sits and looks. She cries over her first letter from home and crams for her first quiz. Weeks ahead of time she starts planning what to wear at the "little sister" party, and the night of the big event she marches to the Goose with curls and bows bobbing and a teddy-bear dangling by one arm. She searches her brain for a clever idea for the Junior Class party and finds there a brilliant idea that makes the other classes wonder why they were never that original. She looks forward to her next three years because the first was the best of her life—no longer a novice, she now places her arm around the girl next to her in chapel on exactly the right beat in "Hail to Thee."

PRESIDENTS COUNCIL

The President's Council is composed of the presidents of the four classes and the heads of the most important extra-curricular organizations: Student Government, MEH LADY, the Spectator, Theatre Guild, Civic League, W. A. A., Star and Sceptre, and Y. W. C. A. The Council, under the efficient guidance and discerning judgment of the president, deals with the problems of the campus and campus life; and the cooperation of the two results in a successful collegiate policy. Meetings are held once a month. This year the Council has helped in selecting speakers who will aid students in vocational guidance. The chief social activities of the Council are serving as hostesses for guests of the college and assisting at the reception after the monthly birthday dinners.

The Student Government Association, organized in 1910, has as its original purpose the maintaining of high standards on the campus. It does not attempt to be an absolute government but functions as a cooperative link between the students and administration to bring about a set of standards by which the students achieve a well-organized and satisfied life. This organization, of which we are truly proud, is headed by an executive board, and a student council meeting is held once a week; there is also a bimonthly student body meeting.

M. S. C. W. Student Government is identified with the Mississippi Intercollegiate Association for Student Government, Women's Intercollegiate Association for Student Government, the Southern Intercollegiate Student Government, and the National Student Federation of America. Each association has an annual convention to which M. S. C. W. sends representatives for the purpose of finding out what representative student opinion recommends for more efficient student governing.

The Y. W. C. A. is organized into eight departments, with subheads under each, which are organized to include many and various activities in the field of religious work. So that all students may have a chance to share in the work, during the school session the committees together with the main officers of the "Y," Mary Helen Crichlow, President; Daisy Louise Price, First Vice-President; Mary Ellen Cunningham, Second Vice-President; Millie Gabbert, Secretary; Adelaide Morrow, Treasurer. The Membership Department, with Daisy Louise Price as chairman, has charge of "Y" Sponsors, the girls who help new students with Orientation Week. All Freshman "Y" work for the year is under her direction. Mary Ann Jones is the Morning Watch Chairman. Chairman of the Vesper Services Committee is Mary Ellen Cunningham. The Publicity Department has as its co-chairmen Josephine Thornton and Eva Dell Cunningham. Gladys Collier plans the social activities, the "Y" parties, the "At Homes" in the Student Activity Room, group singing before a log fire. Lenore Marion heads the committee of religious literature. In the "Y" discussion groups Eloise Lee is chairman of World Fellowship; Anna Douglas Leak is chairman of Vital Problems in the South; Mary Elizabeth Zimmerman, Christianity and the Student; Mary Frances Clark, Christian Ethics on the Campus; and Christine Boyd, New Upper-Classmen Work. Ida Frances Cook, Julia May Watkins, and Edna Earl Waters are assisting with Freshman work. Arthur Jean Armes is Vespers Secretary; Winifred Cook and Margaret Downey, Morning Watch pianists; Elizabeth Louise Moore, Anna Rose Crawford, and Jean Glaser are on the Morning Watch committee. Eva Delle Cunningham is the only member not in the picture.

THEATRE GUILD

Theatre Guild, the college dramatic organization, presents plays that have won renown for M. S. C. W. This year, to encourage interest in theatre work and to introduce the new speech instructors to the campus, a large backstage reception was given for the entire student body. The three major productions of the year were Shaw's "Arms and the Man;" Maeterlinck's "Blue Bird," and Shakespeare's "The Tempest." In addition to the three leading plays there were given a series of one-act plays to private audiences, in which newcomers made their initial performances. The campus was highly honored in having Miss Eva Le Gallienne play in "Hedda Gabbler," and as a climax to the performance Theatre Guild gave a reception in her honor.

As the name indicates, the Guild is divided into groups on a point basis. Bats are composed of outstanding actresses; Master Workmen, made up of the gifted backstage workers; Journeymen and Apprentices, of the lower ranking members.

THE COLLEGE YEARBOOK

After months of laborious but thrilling work, thrilling because it was being done for you and because it was work of the heart, we send in to the printers our last sheet of MEH LADY copy and our last campus snapshot. Now that the rush and confusion are a thing of the past, we can view with amusement the long afternoons and nights that were filled with dates with the photographers, tissue paper dummies that were frayed and worn from constant use, the doing of feats of great daring to get new angle shots, the constant search for club and organization heads, and the feeling of emptiness when an unexpected problem presented itself.

Our efforts were not spent in vain, for today we can hand to you the 1940 MEH LADY. Cherish it, for it is with great pride that we give it to you.

THE

Ann trims galley proof while Miriam pastes it in place—looks like they're having fun!

Every Tuesday the Spectator, the official weekly student publication of the M. S. C. W. campus, is delivered to students' rooms. Being one of the best, the Spec belongs to National, Southern, and State press associations, to the meetings of which both old and newly elected delegates are sent each year. This weekly publication aspires to integrate the diverse activities of M. S. C. W. into a coordinated whole. Welcome is on the doormat of the Spec office any hour of the day or night until 10 p. m., at which time the Spectator heads settle down to real work. The word "work" acquires its fullest meaning on Monday night when the office is in a turmoil with the proofreaders, business and editorial staff working furiously. "Fillers" are cut, paste mixed, proof checked, and another paper goes to press. Ann Roberts and her staff edit the Spectator most efficiently, while Miriam Gibert and the members of her business staff take care of the financial side of production. Throughout the year informal "get-togethers" are held in the Spec office where both staffs gather to discuss trivial matters and devour pie a la mode. The formal festive affairs come twice a year in the form of banquets held at the Gilmer Hotel. All the staff members are in the pictures except Sarah Jones, Louise Mott, and Elizabeth Sessions, who are on the editorial staff, and Lucille Savery, Edith Furr, and Gertrude Shannon, who are on the business staff.

EPHEMERA

To crystallize and catch for all time the results of the fleeting literary urges of young writers at M. S. C. W. is the purpose of our magazine, the Ephemera, whose title indicates a transitional stage, not in the life of the publication but in the progress of its contributors. It made its appearance on the M. S. C. W. campus, under the faculty generalship of Dr. Buckley, in May, 1937, for the purpose of stimulating creative writing among the students. Contributors are not limited to any class or group, and all types of writing are solicited: short stories, poetry, critical and informal essays, articles, and book reviews. Art is also finding its place in the Ephemera in the form of block prints of campus life and photographic studies. Because of the great honor of having an article printed in the Ephemera, activity points are given on its merit. Let us laud its staff and contributors because of their work in stimulating intellectual development on the M. S. C. W. campus. Ida Frances Cook is the capable editor of the Ephemera, and Adelaide Morrow is the efficient business manager.

THE CIVIC LEAGUE

The purpose of Civic League is to maintain an orderly and healthful environment on the M. S. C. W. campus, for it believes that order and cleanliness contribute to the beauty of students' college homes. Through house committees consisting of a house chairman, appointed for a year, and inspectors for each hall, appointed every three months, Civic League is able to uphold its high standards. The house chairman usually inspects once a week; the inspectors, three times a week. Civic League sponsors each spring "Clean-Up Week" for the purpose of keeping in mind the importance of a well-kept campus. The campaign fires the various dormitories with the competitive spirit, for at the end of the week, at the conclusion of daily inspection, an award is given to the dormitory that has maintained the most consistent neatness. Civic League house chairmen absent from the picture are: Bess McEachin, Calloway; Elizabeth Weddle, Franklin; Adele Grant, Fant. Ruth Howorth is President; Jean Hitch, Vice-President; Grace Baker, Secretary and Treasurer.

DEBATE COUNCIL

Debate Council members are chosen after debate tryouts. The purpose of the council is to give the girls a chance to study current questions, practice in parliamentary procedure, and an opportunity for oral expression. From time to time during the year different members of the council go on trips to debate with other colleges in the South. The council holds an inter-class tournament each year, and a cup is awarded to the class that wins. A medal is given to the most outstanding speaker. Officers are Rebecca Scott, President; Annie Ruth Hurt, Vice-President; Lorine Goza, Secretary; Helen Harrold, Treasurer; Dr. E. C. Seigfred, Sponsor. Members not in the picture are Mary Jo Bass, Jim Alice Cockrell, Irma Grey Hogue, Betsy Ann Murchey, Leona Smith, and Sallie Rose Sugg.

VESPER CHOIR

The Vesper Choir lends an impressive element to the Sunday Vesper services. Meetings are held once a week to practice, to learn new songs, and to study their history. The choir offers special programs on Armistice Day, at Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter. One of the most outstanding events of the year is the singing of Christmas carols under dormitory windows the morning before the Christmas holidays begin. All the students join in, and later the happy group gathers at the Student Activities Room, and coffee and doughnuts are served before the burning logs. Officers are Sara Noble, Director; Reba Deen Gillis, Secretary.

Faint strains of "On Wings of Song" drift over the campus as the voices of the Glee Club blend perfectly under Mr. Weiser's artistic directorship. The Glee Club is composed of seventy-five members, twenty-eight of the best voices being in the Varsity Glee Club; and practice is held three times a week. Such an inspiring program as the annual Christmas concert is true evidence of their superior ability. They also form an impressive musical background for the Junior-Freshman wedding and play an outstanding part in the graduation programs. The organization belongs to the State Federation of Music Clubs and usually enters its annual choral contest. Sarah Noble is President; Clarissa Watson, Vice-President; Marjorie Dean, Secretary and Treasurer; Daisy Louise Price, Accompanist.

ORCHESTRA

The orchestra is composed of the girls who are talented in music, and they contribute much to the aesthetic activities of the M. S. C. W. campus. Under the leadership of Mr. Theodore Russell, head of the Music Department, this organization has been steadily growing. The purpose of the orchestra is to offer girls musical training and concert experience, and to present programs that are a notable addition to the cultural life of the college. The orchestra gives an outstanding program every Christmas and in the spring, and it also plays an important part in the Junior-Freshman wedding and in the dance programs. Officers are Emma Karl Juchheim, President; Nancy Nelson Granberry, Vice-President; Millie Gabbert, Secretary and Treasurer; Mr. Theodore Russell, Director.

First Violin: Emma Karl Juchheim, Concert Mistress, Med Scott Brown, Anna Katherine Fulton, Martha Moody, Alexandra Talantis, Virginia Stiles, Flynn Goodman. Second Violin: Millie Gabbert, Jannette Brooks, Emily Stafford, Mary Emily Garraway, Virginia Sheffield, Madelyn Nicholson, Martha Hartness, Mary Anna Anderson, Kathleen McDonald. Viola: Margie Grizzle, Merle King, Flora Alice Gore, Louise Knight, Annie Ruth Taylor, Minnie Coleman, Virginia Echols. W. A. A.

Normal Clower, President; Jessie Grossnickle, Vice-President; Miss Romayne Berryman, Sponsor; Genevieve Earhart, Secretary; Arthur Jean Armes, Treasurer. These four students are the only wearers of an M, which is presented to those earning a high number of W. A. A. points.

Sports of all sorts are enthusiastically enjoyed by students under the auspices of the Women's Athletic Association, which is sponsored by the Physical Education department. Eligibility to membership in W. A. A. is earned by a specified amount of active participation in campus athletics. Girls are pledged at the end of each gym term and wear tennis balls around their necks during pledgeship. The association has as its purpose the promotion of a high physical efficiency among the students by encouraging an interest in hygienic and athletic activities. Most important events are a big party given in September for all interested new students and a picnic in the spring at which the new officers are installed. On the following pages each W. A. A. member is pictured in a characteristic athletic activity.

· PERSO

We give to you a group of our campus personalities. They typify M. S. C. W. and are as representative of the college as the old clock tower and the gingko tree. Our campus is cosmopolitan and so filled with outstanding individuals that it would take pages to picture them for you. Therefore, we have chosen from among them a few of those that are well known to every student.

L. Parkinson.

The Senior honor society, Star and Sceptre, has a rigorous set of membership requirements: a percentile rank of eighty-five, a minimum of twenty-five activity points, and a student government record meeting the requirements of Star and Sceptre. Its main purpose is to encourage scholarship, to promote participation in constructive college activities, and to inspire high ideals of conduct. The society has monthly meetings held in the home of Mrs. B. L. Parkinson, the sponsor. This year the meetings are devoted to discussions on the things that make America beautiful, such as our philosophy and freedom, our heritage, the opportunities that America affords. The officers are Med Scott Brown, President; Jane Strickland, Vice-President; Alice Steen Hibbett, Secretary; Jessie Grossnickle, Treasurer; Mary Emma Smith, Reporter.

Torch, junior honor society, has as its purpose that of encouraging scholarship, promoting participation in all constructive college activities, and inspiring ideals of conduct. The number of active members shall not exceed twenty-five students, and they must meet the following requirements: an average percentile rank of eighty-five or above, with a student government record of not more than one campus, and a minimum of fifteen activity points. The general topic for discussion throughout the year has been "Travel." The only member absent from the picture is Marjorie Dean. The officers are Edna Erle Waters, President; Daisy Louise Price, Vice-President; Ruth Killebrew, Secretary; Eloise Rowland, Treasurer; Leona Smith, Reporter; Miss Lucy Banks, Sponsor.

LANTERN.

Lantern is a sophomore honor society made up of students meeting the following requirements: scholastic average of B, a minimum of five activity points, and a student government record of not over one week's campus. At the end of the year Lantern has an impressive pledge service held on the steps of the Student Activities Building. Each member in turn calls the name of the Freshman she pledges and hands to her a lighted lantern. Subject for the year's study is "The Fine Arts." Because it is realized that every member should acquire a knowledge and appreciation of the arts, at each program one art is studied. Different members take part in the program which is related to her particular talent. Members not in the picture are Reba Dean Gillis, Gene Golding, Frances Guy, and Buena Haun.

Second Row: Adele Grant, Bonnie Harmon, Lenore Marion, Annie Ruth Taylor.

Delta chapter of Pi Delta Phi, national honorary French fraternity, has the honor of being the first national honorary fraternity on the M. S. C. W. campus. It is composed of students who have had French 301 or its equivalent, in which they must have a B average. The outstanding social activity of the year is the spring banquet at the Goose. Officers are Ruth Chamblee, President; Frances Frazier, Vice-President; Ruth Killebrew, Secretary and Treasurer; Miss Margie Morris, Sponsor.

SIGMA ALPHA IOTA

Sigma Alpha Iota is the oldest national professional music fraternity for women. It aims to uphold the highest ideals of musical education; to raise the standards of productive musical work; and to further the development of music in America. The provisional chapter was founded at M. S. C. W. only this year, but it has already taken its place among the other well-known organizations of the campus. Other charter members not in the picture are Virginia Newell, Sara Sparacino, Frances Roberds, Laura Melton, Martha McCreary, Bernice Benson, Janet Chrestman, Quana Francis, Helen Harpole, and Margaret Rogers.

The Spanish Club, a departmental club for Spanish students, is interested in making a general study of Spain and the Spanish-speaking countries. Sigma Pi Alpha, national honorary Spanish fraternity, meets with the Spanish Club. The programs endeavor to promote a better understanding between the countries that speak Spanish and ours by featuring speeches and informal discussions. Officers are Mable Huey Jones, President; Mary Suber, Vice-President; Ruth Chamblee, Secretary and Treasurer; Dr. Ruby Caulfield, Sponsor. Members not in the picture are Martha Gresham, Marydel Boswell, Olivia Brame, Adelaide McInnis, Earlyne Oursler, Margaret Ethridge, Maude Wilson.

Eta Sigma Phi and Classical Club

Epsilon Chapter of Eta Sigma Phi is composed of Juniors and Seniors who are majoring or minoring in Latin and have maintained a B average. The members are now making a study of programs adapted to the use of high school Latin clubs. Officers are: Mary Emma Smith, President; Edna Erle Waters, Vice-President; Lorine Goza, Secretary; Mary Louise Matthews, Treasurer; Dr. Gladys Martin, Sponsor.

The aim of the Classical Club is to revive interest in classical literature and art. The topic for the programs of the year has been Roman towns. Members of the club gave interesting talks, and Dr. Martin furnished pictures for illustrations. The officers are: Winifred Cook, President; Joyce Anderson, Vice-President; Mary Agnes Livingston, Secretary; Marie Drake, Treasurer; Evelyn Pearson, Reporter; Dr. Gladys Martin, Sponsor. Evelyn Pearson is the only member not in the picture.

BAYLOR FRATERNITY

Baylor Fraternity is an honor society for home economics majors. This year pledging was held in February and in May. Programs have been on current consumer education topics. Among the outstanding social activities of the year were the two initiation banquets and the banquet at the Gilmer given by the Mississippi State Alpha Zeta Fraternity. Each year, during the Christmas season, Baylor sponsors a sale of the fruit cakes made by the foods classes. The fraternity also helps with social work. Requirements for membership are a high B average, and at least fifteen hours in home economics. Officers are Mary Sue Lewis, President; Ruby Cole, Vice-President; Claudia Phillips, Secretary; Ruth Wilson, Treasurer; Elizabeth Coffee, Reporter; Miss Mary Wilson, Sponsor.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

International Relations Club is composed of students who are interested in current international affairs. New members are selected from a group recommended by the faculty, and selections are made by the club. The purpose of the organization is to learn about the present-day political affairs in other countries and to promote a feeling of internationalism. Dr. Knepper, Dr. Smith, and Mr. Hill gave interesting discussions on the present status of the war. Dr. Parkinson was also one of the guest speakers. Each year the Carnegie Institute sends books to the club on international subjects, which are used for reference and for general reading. Officers are Bartow Phillips, President; Anna Douglas Leak, Vice-President; Mary Emma Smith, Secretary; Margaret Irby Morgan, Treasurer; Miss Mary Frierson, Sponsor.

KAPPA PI

Creative effort in art other than that expressed in class problems finds an outlet in the work of Kappa Pi, art center of the campus. Outstanding work in art and a general average of B are requirements for election to Kappa Pi. Membership affords girls with real interest and ability in art to meet together and discuss subjects of common interest. Kappa Pi during the past year explored various phases of the technical arts, sketched at McClanahan's Camp (the scene of our group picture), sponsored exhibitions of well-known artists, and contributed to the Nation Kappa Pi exhibition and magazine.

Gala occasions were the pledge and alumnæ breakfast in the spring and the traditional autumn banquet followed by an impressive initiation. Pledges wear brushes tied with purple and gold ribbons.

Officers are Jessie Grossnickle, President; Evelyn Reeder, Vice-President; Anne Taylor, Secretary-Treasurer; Miss A. M. Byrnes, Sponsor; Miss L. Rhodes and Miss M. L. Lassiter, Faculty Advisers. Mignon Humphrey, Miss M. L. Lassiter, and Miss L. Rhodes are members not in the picture.

The Chemistry Club is a departmental club for students with scientific interest. Monthly programs are on subjects in the field of chemistry. Miss Crawford made a talk that was of particular interest to us, "Place of Women in Chemistry." During the year other members of the faculty will make talks, and such subjects as "Chemistry in Industry and in Everyday Life," will be discussed. Of extreme interest is the Chemical Fair, attended by all students, which is sponsored by the Chemistry Club and Gamma Sigma Epsilon. Each year the last meeting is in the form of a picnic at Lee Park. The officers are Med Scott Brown, President; Ruth Killebrew, Vice-President; Marie Chalk, Secretary and Treasurer; Sponsors, Dr. W. F. McCormick and Miss Blanche Crawford.

HYGIENE JOURNAL CLUB

The Hygiene Journal Club is a group of students interested in keeping up with all phases of biological study. They read leading scientific journals and books and present reviews at monthly meetings. Also, they correspond with former members who have advanced in the work. An unusually interesting program was one at which Dr. Douglas Baugh gave a chemical diagnosis for heart diseases by the use of the electrocardiograph. Membership in the Hygiene Journal Club is strictly confined to bacteriology and physiology majors in the three upper classes. Officers are Mary Louise Biddle, President; Mary Pigford, Vice-President; Mary Golden Means, Secretary; Med Scott Brown, Treasurer; Mary Bell McMillan, Reporter; Miss Luna Austin, Sponsor.

PHYSICS CLUB

The Physics Club is a departmental club for students with scientific interests, particularly those in the physics courses. Monthly meetings are held with emphasis placed alternately on astronomy and physics. Programs are in the form of research papers, on different phases of science, read by the members. Guest speakers are often invited to instruct and enter into discussion with the members. Social activities add to the enjoyment of the programs. The officers are Alice Steen Hibbett, President; Eloise Rowland, Vice-President; Evelyn McCachren, Reporter; Mr. V. P. Ferguson, Sponsor. Members not in the picture are Cecile Ballard, Jennalee Cantrell, Ruth Kimberly, Mary Bliss Martin, Katherine Morris, and Kathleen Steele.

COMMERCE CLUB

Commerce Club is an organization for those students who are taking commercial work. The purpose of the club as stated in the constitution is "to encourage, promote, and create interest and scholarship in commerce, to encourage and foster high ethical standards in business and professional life." The club meets once a month in the Student Activities Room, where an interesting program featuring a business theme is presented. After the program there is a short social period in which refreshments are served. Officers are Clarissa Watson, President; Atherton Tubb, Vice-President; Sarah Jones, Secretary; Mary Margaret McRae, Treasurer; Mary Alice Bennett, Reporter; Miss Elise Davis and Miss Marguerite Goen, Sponsors; Jean Blizzard, Louise Cox, Adelaide McInnis, Frances Guy, Guards. The Senior members are pictured on the next page. Other members are:

★

The Home Economics Club is composed of students who have home economics as their major subject. Meetings are held monthly, and out-of-town speakers are sponsored. After the meeting a social hour is held in the reception room of Martin Hall. The club was hostess to the state convention of Student Clubs of the Mississippi Home Economics Association in February. Highlights of the convention were a talk by Mrs. Nelson Hutchinson and one by Dr. Dorothy Dickens. The organization is affiliated with the State and National Home Economics Associations. Members engage in social service work each year by supplying underprivileged children with clothing. The Senior members of the Club are pictured on the next page.

EDUCATION CLUB

The Education Club is composed of students planning to enter the teaching profession. The purpose of this organization is to emphasize adequate preparation of the prospective teacher and to promote high teaching ethics. It is also interested in contributing to the educational welfare of the members and in encouraging a feeling of oneness and fellowship among prospective teachers. The club meets once a month in the Student Activities Room. Outstanding features of these meetings are guest speakers. Dr. Bedwell talked on "Philosophy of Education." Miss Byrnes discussed "Art in Education." The talks are followed by an open forum in which the students ask questions. The latter part of the meeting is social.

MATHEMATICS CLUB

The Mathematics Club is for the purpose of broadening the students' knowledge of the subject and instilling in them an appreciation of its many phases. For four of the meetings each class is responsible for the program, which is given in competition to the other three. The class that presents the best program is awarded a prize. One of the most outstanding social events of the year is the meeting held jointly with the State College and local K. M. E. Chapters. Another outstanding entertainment is the picnic at Lee Park. Officers are Anna Belle McCaleb, President; Kathleen Steele, Vice-President; Pat Kellis, Secretary and Treasurer; Eloise Rowland, Reporter; Mr. R. L. Grossnickle, Sponsor. Members not in the picture are Martha Joel Allen, Edith Furr, and Emily Alexander.

All biology majors and minors belong to the Nature Study Club, a club organized to give the lovers of nature an active interest. To make the monthly meetings different and entertaining the club sponsors field trips, picnics, afternoon excursions to Plymouth, Waverley, and other interesting places. One program is set aside each year to hear about the summer travels of the sponsors and members. This year club members opened the new Biology Museum with a tea. Officers are: President, Bernice Triplett; Vice-President, Eugenia Fowler; Secretary and Treasurer, Kathleen Glenn; Sponsors, Dr. Clytee Evans, Miss George Sehon, and Miss Maude Cheek. Members not in the picture are Anna Rose Crawford, Rebecca Fraser, Dorothy Gates, Mary Alice Guth, Josephine McGehee, Ruth Smith, Julia Mae Thomas, Earline Vaughn, Marjorie Lee, Jackie Frazier, Martha Gresham, Eloise Rowland, Dorothy Woolbright, Mary Gene Woolbright, Alice Steen Hibbett, Sara France Clements.

Because of the general interest in photography a Camera Club was organized on the M. S. C. W. campus this year. A number of students and faculty members were eager to join. The organization has four classes of members: active, limited to twenty who have a B average; associate, any number; faculty; and special, who are people living in Columbus. Active members are given free access to the dark room in Science Hall.

The club meets once a month. At each meeting someone talks on a phase of photography. At one meeting, the members brought their cameras and made portraits of one another. At another time the club met at Gring's Studio and took pictures there. As possession of a camera is required for membership, there are a number of students going about their campus business with shutters clicking at the most inopportune moments. The officers are: Frances Amberg, President; Martha Stevens, Vice-President; Nina Claire Gates, Secretary and Treasurer; Miss Marietta Byrnes, Sponsor; Mr. V. P. Ferguson, Technical Advisor. Active members not in the picture are Emily Louise Geary, Martha Stevens, Martha Stennis, and Catherine Brown.

The purpose of the Bach Society is to promote a growing knowledge and appreciation of music. Membership is restricted to applied music students, orchestra, and glee club members. The society is a member of the State Federation of Music Clubs. At meetings the various phases of music are discussed, and one of the most interesting programs was a talk on "The Science of Sound," by Mr. Ferguson. Officers are Elizabeth Noblin, President; Daisy Louise Price, Vice-President; Annie Ruth Arnold, Secretary; Virginia Newell, Treasurer; Mr. R. N. Lee, Sponsor. Members not in the picture are Maryanna Anderson, Angelyn Coltharp, Flora Alice Gore, Clementine Gregory, Edith Henry, Ione Hester, Mercedes Johnson, Emma Karl Juchheim, Margaret Knobles, Sarah Lundy, Frances Martin, Frances Pryor, Wynnette Shepherd.

FRENCH CLUB

The French Club is made up of the students taking courses in French who are interested in making a thorough study of the language, of France, and of its customs and people. Because the French Club is fostered by Pi Delta Phi, the monthly meetings are held jointly, and the same officers direct both groups. Members of French Club who are not in the picture are Anne Carr, Sara Coffey, Anna Rose Crawford, Charlotte Gay Ezell, Julia Guess, Martha Hartness, Catherine Hunter, Lyda Jackson, Mable Huey Jones, Grace Lillard, Elizabeth Milligan, Martha McRee, Flavia Russell, Carol Shepard, Dorothy Anne Smallwood, Emily Stafford, Jean Tann, Dorothy Wallace, Mary Allen Wright, Adele Grant, Mary Louise Biddle, Earline Vaughn, Dr. Ruby Caulfield.

WRITER'S CLUB

The Writer's Club, an honor society, was organized to stimulate creative writing and to offer a means of studying the different types of writing. Membership is limited to twenty-five. To join, a student must submit two different types of writing, which are read by the club and voted on. The club meets twice a month, and each member must submit an original example of the type of writing being studied. Officers are: Adele Grant, President; Gertrude Shannon, Vice-President; Audrey Maples, Secretary; Janette Esarey, Librarian; Mr. L. A. H. Osgood, Sponsor. Members not in the picture are Joyce Anderson, Florence McLeod, Flavia Russell, Jean Somers, Annie Ruth Taylor, Barbara Wade, Betty Wells.

This year marks the initial appearance of the Coast Club on the M. S. C. W. campus. It is composed of girls from Bay St. Louis, Pass Christian, Long Beach, Gulfport, Biloxi, Ocean Springs, and Pascagoula. The purpose of the club is to foster friendship among the coast girls and to promote social activities both on the campus and the coast towns. During the Christmas holidays a dinner was given at Broadwater Beach to launch the social life of the club. A joint meeting with the coast alumnæ, under the supervision of Miss Helen Perry, was held during spring holidays. The Coast Club entertains new and prospective students and introduces M. S. C. W. and its many activities to the towns along the Gulf coast. Officers are Annie Jane Anderson, President; Audrey Maples, Vice-President; Rosebud Neely, Secretary; Sally Jané, Treasurer; Miss Elise Davis, Sponsor. Members not in the picture are Betty Jo Backstrom, Virginia Ferguson, Doris Walker, Elise Netherland, Verlma Fern Carter, Mary Gary Howie, and Alice May Skellie.

HOTTENTOTS

A soft shadow on the wall, the reflection of a Hottentot as she approaches the candle-lit tea table in the Student Activities Room. Each fall a tea is given for the rushees so that from them the members may select their pledges. Founded in 1924, Hottentots is a social organization limited to thirty-five members. Pledges wear jeweled "H" pins until they are initiated at a formal banquet given at the Gilmer Hotel. Various social activities are participated in during the year, including a formal dinner party in the spring for the graduating Seniors. Helen Booth is President; Edith Ruff is Vice-President; Grace Baker, Secretary and Treasurer. Miss Marguerite Goen is sponsor.

BLACK LIST

The sign of skull and crossbones spells bad luck to most people, but to these twenty-six smiling lasses it means plenty of fun and a happy heart, for skull and crossbones are the symbol of Black List. Back in the Dark Ages of antiquity, in 1914, as a climax to Hallowe'en week, this organization made its initial appearance on the M. S. C. W. campus. The most outstanding Juniors who participated in Hallowe'en week were chosen by the Seniors, and from this select group, Black List took the highest ranking thirteen as their pledges. Today Black List is merely a social organization and Hallowe'en week a thing of the past, but each fall the Seniors pledge by candle light their chosen thirteen. The original insignia of wooden paddles, arm-slings, water-guns, and eye patches are retained. Activities are numerous, but the most exciting is the banquet where the Seniors receive their gold bracelets from the Juniors. Did someone once say that thirteen was an unlucky number? Head of Black List is Helen Booth. Sponsors are Miss Marguerite Goen and Miss Helen Perry.

Top to Bottom: Helen Booth, Edith Ruff, Mary Gary Howie, Bettye Sue Neves, Hilda Pierce, Elizabeth "Red" Sessions, Ann DeLoach, Lillian "Sis" Pierce, Miriam Gibert, Ruth Fite.

HELEN BOOTH, President, '39-'40, and EDITH RUFF, President, '40-'41.

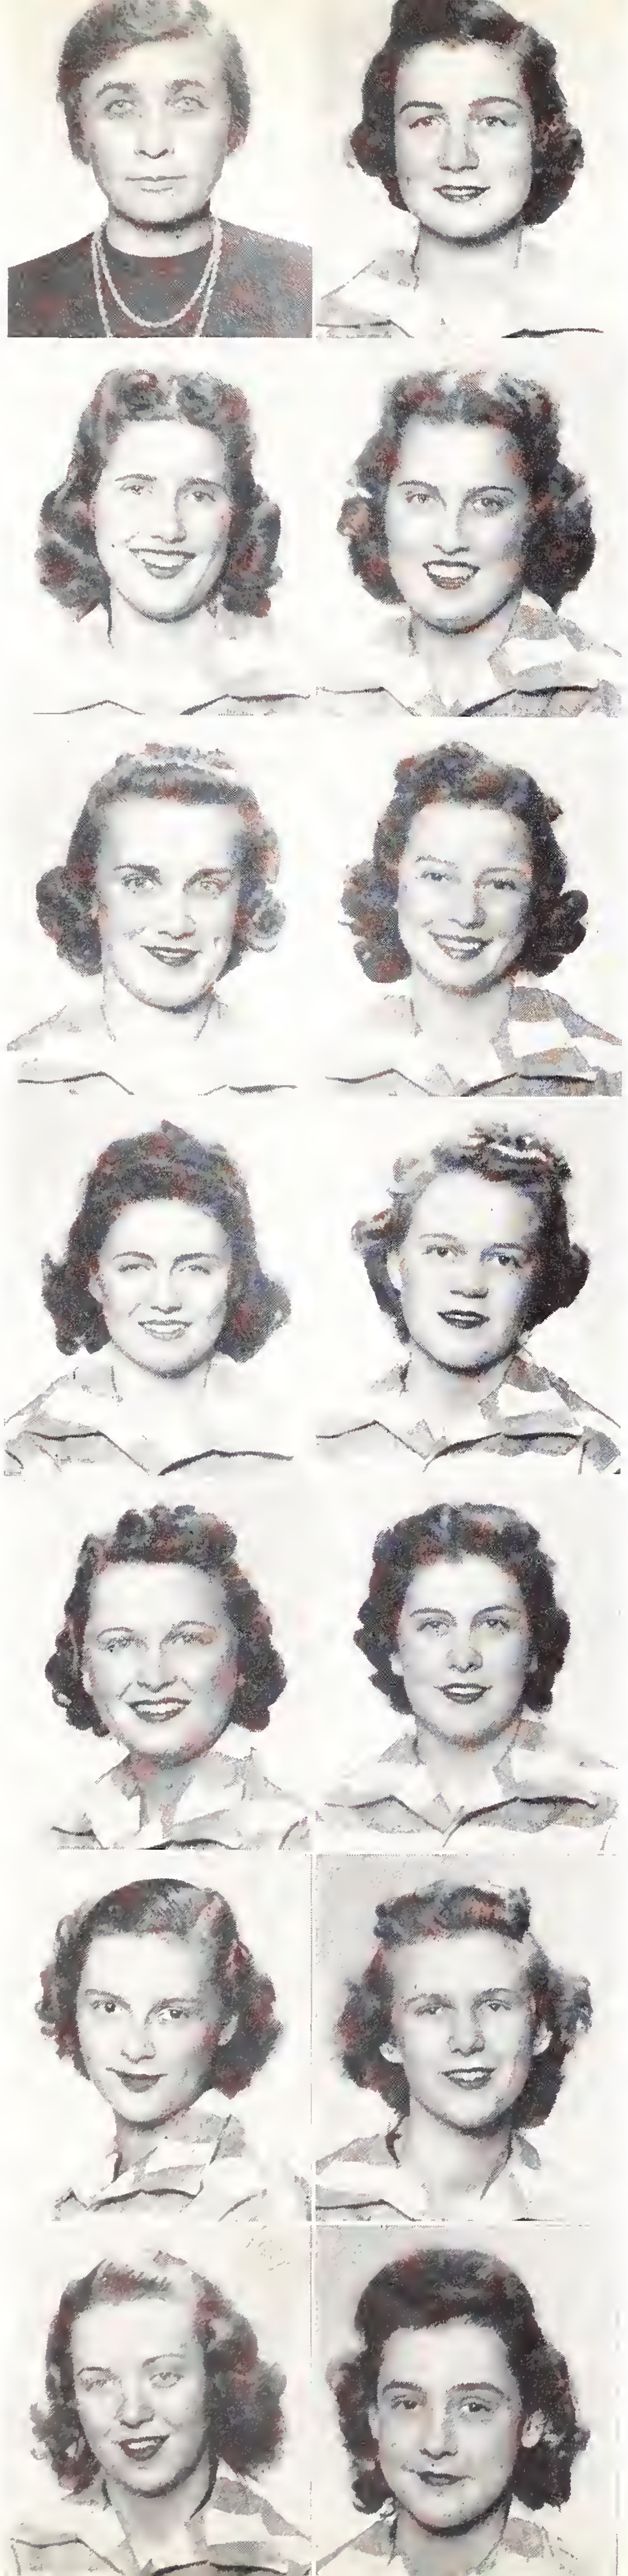
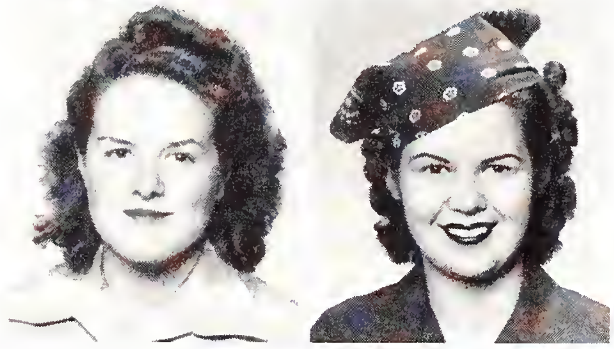
Eleven happy faces, partially hidden, but happy just the same. These are not bandits in disguise because of their misdeeds, but it is an old Masker custom to have annual pictures made with Junior pledges in black masks. Maskers is a social organization to add an enjoyable note to the last two years of college. It is composed of eleven Senior actives and eleven Junior pledges. The name "Maskers" was not adopted until 1932 although the organization was founded in 1929 under another name. No one knows when the pledging takes place, but suddenly one morning a broad grin, with a rose pinned on its shoulder, is encountered on entering the Goose, and there before you stands a happy Masker pledge. Interesting social activities are scattered throughout the year, starting with the "pledge breakfast" at the Goose and closing with the "graduate dinner" at the Gilmer. The various and sundry insignia of the organization—"asphidity" bag worn around the neck, paddles inscribed with members' names, a black mask. Ruth Howorth is the head of Maskers. Miss Elise Davis is sponsor.



Rogues



Julia May Watkins and Lucille "Toots" Reddoch

They appear to be bold pirates, but they lack that bloodthirsty look in their eyes. Striped shirts and heads tied with a kerchief are mere symbols of this original Freshman-Sophomore organization, the Rogues. It is composed of fourteen active Sophomores and thirteen Freshmen pledges, banded together for such social activities as a rush barbecue for prospective pledges, a Coca-Cola pledging party in the Goose, an impressive banquet given by the actives for the Freshmen pledges. In the spring, formal initiations are given, followed by the handing down of Rogue-Sophomore collars. A young organization, founded only last year, but long may it flourish.

Top: The members stand triumphant over their pledges who kneel in servitude.

Center: The members waited breathlessly in the shadows surrounding the Goose—the bell ending study hour sounded, and figures clad in white began to come toward the meeting place. As they approached, the Sophomores ran to meet them, and each one chained her Rogue sister to her. They walked into the Goose two by two—each one glowing with excitement. The traditional Coca-Cola of pledging night was drunk by everyone to bind the members and pledges together.

Bottom: The original Sophomore Club gives a banquet at the Gilmer Hotel for its pledges with everyone in formal dress.

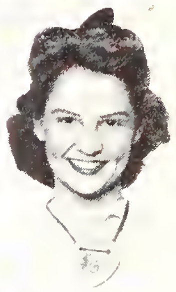
HEARTS



Diminutive gold hearts encircle the necks of Sophomore members, while the Freshmen pledges wear fragrant cedar hearts tied with red ribbon. Lockhearts was founded only last year, but because of its high purpose, that of promoting friendship between the two "baby" classes, it has established for itself a prominent place on the M. S. C. W. campus. It also requires of its members a high scholastic average and participation in at least one extra-curricular activity. Social functions are numerous, but one of the best is the sunrise breakfast for the pledges.
